Have You Checked Your Heating System Recently?

Well, it's that time of year again. Temperatures start dropping and your heater kicks on to help keep your home warm. Here are a few tips for taking care of your heating system.

Replace Your Heater's Air Filter

If you haven't replaced your air filter recently, now is the time to do it. Replacing the filter will allow your heater to run more efficiently and keep the air in your home fresh.

Check Your Vents

Make sure all heating vents are opened and unblocked by furniture or other items. This will ensure that the air is even distributed throughout the home.

Clean Your Vents

Cleaning and removing dust from vents or along baseboard heaters helps keep the air in your home from smelling stale and musty. If you clean your vents and you still smell dust when heating turns on, you may want to see if your ductwork needs to be cleaned.
